Weekend camping

You're welcome to choose your camping spot and park there, as long as you don't move your vehicle again until Monday morning. We don't want squashed children.

If you'll want to use your vehicle before Monday morning, use the Day car park (which is alongside the camping area).

Food and drink on site – to buy (really good) food onsite, for breakfast, lunch, dinner, have another look at www.bluesandroots.co.uk. You're welcome to bring your own food – picnic, barbecue etc – as well.

Local food shop – nearest is a campsite shop 1 mile away back along our (fairly level) narrow lane, open 8.30–11 and 5–7; otherwise a (licensed) village shop 1.5 miles, and a superb farm shop 2.5 miles – see 'Getting here'.

Children and young adults

Under-18s are welcome with parents/guardians. Under-12s must be supervised by their parents/guardians at all times, even when participating in children's workshops and activities.

Dogs are welcome so long as you, their owner/carer:

- keep each dog on a lead attached to a human or a nearby fixture, and
- pick up dog dirt and dispose of it safely. We have dedicated bins, and some spare bags at the main entrance gate.

And of course, don't leave your dog in a car or van unattended.

Any dog found off a lead will be put in a safe place by our security team. It will be given drinking water, and will stay there until it's taken off our land.

The owner of any dog seen fouling our land without picking up after it will be required to pick up the dirt and take the dog off our land immediately.

This is a No Glass festival

We don't want glass splinters to slash your feet now and in the years to come, so:

- In the festival site: no glass at all (except spectacles!). You can buy one of our (very reasonably priced) cups with your drink, and reuse it for years if you like.
- In the campsite: no drinking glasses. Glass bottles are okay – but please take them away with you.

Toilets

There will be long-drop toilets, pissoires and Andyloos.

Small children? Please bring your own child seat.

Showers, washing facilities

There are a few mains water standpipes around the place. We're hoping to have an eco-shower system, but otherwise God Will Provide. (Or not.)

Rubbish!

We'll have a recycling scheme. Please be ready to use it – that'll help stop the landfill site filling up and a new one having to be found.

And we run a '10 pieces' system; before you leave, please pick up 10 pieces of litter that's not your own.

We do love to be beside the seaside ...

We're by the sea – but getting there is a tough 300-ft scramble/climb or a 20-minute walk. Don't let your kids think this is a beach weekend.

And what's all this about a labyrinth?

See www.thelabyrinth.org.uk, the venue website.
